EU raises husked rice import tariff to €42.50 per tonne

Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 2026/2029 of 3 September 2026 fixing the import duties applicable to certain types of husked rice from 7 September 2026

Update

From 7 September 2026, the European Union (EU) import tariff for husked (brown) rice, excluding basmati rice, is €42.50 per tonne.

Impacted products

Husked (brown) non-basmati rice

What is changing?

The European Union (EU) has raised the import tariff for husked rice (CN code 1006 20) from €30.00 to €42.50 per tonne. This does not apply to husked basmati rice – for specific eligible varieties of basmati – for which the import tariff is always zero.

Why?

The import tariff for husked rice (excluding basmati rice) is set in September based on imports in the previous marketing year (September–August).

Timeline

The revised import tariff applies from 7 September 2026.

Background

The procedure for establishing import tariffs for husked rice other than basmati rice – the result of negotiations with the USA – is set out in Council Decision 2005/476/EC. Zero duty applies to certain varieties of basmati rice that are listed in Regulation 2023/2835.
