Commission Regulation (EU) 2024/2633 as regards maximum residue levels for azoxystrobin, famoxadone, flutriafol, mandipropamid and mefenitrifluconazole in or on certain products

Commission Regulation (EU) 2024/344 as regards maximum residue levels for mandipropamid in or on certain products

Commission Regulation (EU) 2023/1069 as regards maximum residue levels for bixafen, cyprodinil, fenhexamid, fenpicoxamid, fenpyroximate, flutianil, isoxaflutole, mandipropamid, methoxyfenozide, and spinetoram in or on certain products

What is changing and why?

The EU has raised the maximum residue level (MRL) on gherkins from 0.01 to 0.2 mg/kg; on pumpkins and watermelons from 0.3 to 0.4 mg/kg based on new Codex MRLs (CXLs); and the MRL on radish leaves from 25 to 50 mg/kg, following a request for modification of the MRL and EFSA's \(2023b\) evaluation that the requested modification is safe.

This follows MRL increases for mandipropamid on a number of products in 2023 and early 2024 as summarised in Table 1.

Timeline

The new MRLs on gherkins, pumpkins, watermelons, and radish leaves apply from 29 October 2024.

Application dates for other MRL increases are summarised in Table 1.
