Report on EU Agri-Food Fraud Suspicions

What is changing and why?

The European Commission publishes monthly reports of EU Member State controls of food found to be non-compliant with EU food law, and where potentially fraudulent practices are identified.

The January 2024 report includes notifications concerning the following AGRINFO partner countries: Afghanistan, Brazil, China, Colombia, Ecuador, Egypt, Gambia, Ghana, India, Jordan, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Lebanon, Madagascar, Malaysia, Mexico, North Macedonia, Pakistan, Senegal, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Togo, Türkiye, Uganda, Ukraine, Uzbekistan, Venezuela, Vietnam.

These reports aim to help stakeholders in the agri-food sector to identify risks and adapt monitoring strategies.

Actions

Exporters of products included in these monthly overviews should pay particular attention when conducting their own monitoring to any non-compliance identified in the reports.

Timeline

The reports are issued every month.
