What is changing and why?

The following applications for registration as protected designations of origin (PDOs) in the geographical indications register of the European Union (eAmbrosia) have been made:

- for a table olive grown in Aydın province from Türkiye
- for granulated coconut sugar from Indonesia.

The following names have been registered in eAmbrosia and granted protection in the EU as no opposition has been received by the European Commission:

- "Livanjski sir" as a protected geographical indication (PGI) from Bosnia and Herzegovina
- "Gaziantep Menengiç Kahvesi / Gaziantep Melengiç Kahvesi" as a PDO from Türkiye.

Actions

Objections against a name to be registered as geographical indication in the EU register (eAmbrosia) can be communicated to the European Commission within 3 months from the date of publication in the Official Journal of the European Union.
