Review of autonomous tariff suspensions and quotas scheme for agricultural goods

Published by AGRINFO on 21 Sep 2026

Call for evidence: Autonomous tariff suspensions and quotas scheme for industrial and agricultural goods – evaluation [scroll down the EU webpage to download]

What is changing and why?

The European Commission has launched a call for evidence inviting stakeholders to provide information and views on the impact of the autonomous tariff suspensions and quotas (ATSQ) scheme. This scheme reduces or suspends import tariffs on a set quantity of products (quota) for certain strategic raw materials that are not produced, or insufficiently produced, in the European Union (EU).

The evaluation aims to determine whether the scheme still effectively meets the needs of EU manufacturers and is administratively efficient.

Actions

The European Commission's Have Your Say consultation closed on 8 October 2026.

Timeline

The European Commission plans to formally adopt the outcome of the evaluation in the first quarter of 2027.

For more information see the full record on the AGRINFO website – where you can also view the latest AGRINFO Update newsletters and search the database.

Disclaimer: Under no circumstances shall COLEAD be liable for any loss, damage, liability or expense incurred or suffered that is claimed to have resulted from the use of information available on this website or any link to external sites. The use of the website is at the user's sole risk and responsibility. This information platform was created and maintained with the financial support of the European Union. Its contents do not, however, reflect the views of the European Union.

Copyright © COLEAD 2026, AGRINFO is funded by the European Union and implemented by COLEAD.