Revision of wine labelling

Published by AGRINFO on 03 Feb 2023; Revised 06 Mar 2025

Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2023/1606 as regards certain provisions on protected denominations of origin and protected geographical indications for wine and on the presentation of compulsory particulars for grapevine products and specific rules for the indication and designation of ingredients for grapevine products, and [...] as regards the certification of imported wine products

What is changing and why?

The European Commission has updated existing rules relating to wine labelling to improve consumers' understanding of wine labels. It clarifies certain terms that may be used on the list of ingredients on wine labels.

Actions

Suppliers of wine should evaluate how existing labels can be aligned with the new rules (which are not mandatory) to meet the objectives of improving consumers' understanding of wine labelling.

Timeline

The Regulation applies since 28 August 2023.

The revised rules on the list of ingredients apply from 8 December 2023.

For more information see the full record on the AGRINFO website – where you can also view the latest AGRINFO Update newsletters and search the database.

Disclaimer: Under no circumstances shall COLEAD be liable for any loss, damage, liability or expense incurred or suffered that is claimed to have resulted from the use of information available on this website or any link to external sites. The use of the website is at the user's sole risk and responsibility. This information platform was created and maintained with the financial support of the European Union. Its contents do not, however, reflect the views of the European Union.

Copyright © COLEAD 2026, AGRINFO is funded by the European Union and implemented by COLEAD.