

Revision of wine labelling

Published by AGRINFO on 03 Feb 2023; Revised 10 May 2024

Regulation 2023/1606 on protected denominations of origin and protected geographical indications for wine

What is changing and why?

The European Commission has updated existing rules relating to wine labelling to improve consumers' understanding of wine labels. It clarifies certain terms that may be used on the list of ingredients on wine labels.

Actions

Suppliers of wine should evaluate how existing labels can be aligned with the new rules to meet the objectives of improving consumers' understanding of wine labelling.

Timeline

Applies since 28 August 2023.

The revised rules on the list of ingredients apply from 8 December 2023.

For more information see the full record on the AGRINFO website – where you can also view the latest AGRINFO Update newsletters and search the database.

Disclaimer: Under no circumstances shall COLEAD be liable for any loss, damage, liability or expense incurred or suffered that is claimed to have resulted from the use of information available on this website or any link to external sites. The use of the website is at the user's sole risk and responsibility. This information platform was created and maintained with the financial support of the European Union. Its contents do not, however, reflect the views of the European Union.