Triflusulfuron-methyl: approval not renewed by EU

Published by AGRINFO on 10 Aug 2023; Revised 10 May 2024

Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 2023/2513 concerning the non-renewal of the approval of the active substance triflusulfuron-methyl

What is changing and why?

The European Commission has decided not to renew approval of the active substance triflusulfuron-methyl. This is due to concerns about groundwater contamination and potential adverse effects on human health.

Timeline

This Regulation applies from 21 November 2023. EU producers will be permitted to use stocks of products containing triflusulfuron-methyl until 20 August 2024.

For more information see the full record on the AGRINFO website – where you can also view the latest AGRINFO Update newsletters and search the database.

Disclaimer: Under no circumstances shall COLEAD be liable for any loss, damage, liability or expense incurred or suffered that is claimed to have resulted from the use of information available on this website or any link to external sites. The use of the website is at the user's sole risk and responsibility. This information platform was created and maintained with the financial support of the European Union. Its contents do not, however, reflect the views of the European Union.

Copyright © COLEAD 2026, AGRINFO is funded by the European Union and implemented by COLEAD.