Welcome to Issue 57 of AGRINFO UPDATE. We report on a new public consultation on the EU's rules of origin, assessing the clarity and efficiency of today's rules that determine where products come from when setting import tariffs. There is also an open consultation on proof of origin requirements for Brazilian chicken and turkey tariff rate quota imports. We outline new rules restricting poultry imports from Argentina as a result of an avian influenza outbreak, and provide overviews of the most recent findings of non-compliant food imports.

We're pleased to announce that the AGRINFO Guide on upcoming mineral oil hydrocarbons rules, available in English, French, and Spanish, has now also been published in Portuguese.

Finally – please register now for our September–October webinar series on how companies and competent authorities can use the EU's TRACES system for veterinary and plant health certificates.

AGRINFO provides a regular information service keeping you up-to-date on evolving EU policies, regulations, and standards that have potential impacts on agricultural value chains in low- and middle-income countries. This email contains links to our website at www.agrinfo.eu, where we give clear summaries about recent and upcoming changes, and actions that companies or authorities need to take to meet the new rules. If you need more information, eligible stakeholders can contact us via the Ask AGRINFO service (available to subscribers working for public authorities, sector associations, or farmer organisations in AGRINFO target countries).

The AGRINFO programme is implemented by COLEAD and funded by the European Union. This publication has been produced with the financial support of the European Union. Its contents are the sole responsibility of COLEAD and can under no circumstances be regarded as reflecting the position of the EU.

AGRINFO keeps you up-to-date on evolving EU policies, regulations and standards impacting agri-food trade. It provides clear summaries for trade partners in low- and middle-income countries about the “what, why and when” of recent and upcoming changes, and actions needed to adjust to new rules.
